

Panasonic KX-TCA92 Comfort Fit Hands-Free Headset with Fold Design

The Panasonic KX-TCA92 Comfort Fit Hands-Free Headset is a good headset for anyone who needs to do some occasional calling with a headset. The Panasonic KX-TCA92 Comfort Fit Hands-Free Headset is easy to use with any computer, and with many phones. You won't be able to use it with a lot of landline phones, especially analog phones, but you shouldn't have any trouble using it with a cell phone.

You can use the Panasonic KX-TCA92 Comfort Fit Hands-Free Headset right out of the box. The design of the Panasonic KX-TCA92 Comfort Fit Hands-Free Headset is traditional, and many people will like that about it. Because the headset rests on top of the head, there is no need for the earpiece to clip over the ear. Many people find clip headsets to be uncomfortable if they aren't used to a clip, or if they need a very adjustable headset. For those customers, the Panasonic KX-TCA92 Comfort Fit Hands-Free Headset is a good choice.

The Panasonic KX-TCA92 Comfort Fit Hands-Free Headset is not a wireless headset, so you will have stay by your computer or phone to use it, but you will be able to keep your hands free. The 4 foot cord does allow you a fair amount of mobility.

Most customers rank the Panasonic KX-TCA92 Comfort Fit Hands-Free Headset very highly for sound quality and comfort. However, some customers had issues with the microphone. They report damage and issues when the microphone is too frequently rotated because excessive rotation can cause the wiring in the microphone to break. So if you purchase the Panasonic KX-TCA92 Comfort Fit Hands-Free Headset you should be careful not to excessively rotate the microphone.
